

MARTY PODSKOCH: THE CIVILIAN CONSERVATION CORPS

TUESDAY, MARCH 26 6:30-8:00pm

The CCC was a public works program that operated from 1933-1942 as part of FDR's New Deal to combat unemployment and poverty during the Great Depression. Hear about the CCC camps through the words and pictures of participants and their families.

This program is free but pre-registration is required. Click here to register.